

CAPITAL
FOUNDATION

FORGING COMMUNITY STRENGTH THROUGH EDUCATION AND PARTNERSHIPS

The CAPITAL Foundation supports the ideals of CAPITAL and promotes

- Leadership
- Education
- Partnerships

within the Asian Pacific Islander (API) community and between the diverse minority communities in the greater Sacramento area.

CAPITAL Foundation board members, with over a century of combined experience in leading, advocating, and supporting the API community, carefully select projects, educational opportunities, and partnerships consistent with the CAPITAL Foundation mission.

Alice Wong, right, and Kristy Kunisaki - 2004 CAPITAL Foundation Scholarship recipient

“The CAPITAL Foundation is funding individuals, organizations, projects, and events to construct a stronger, more connected API community in Sacramento”

Alice Wong
Board President
CAPITAL Foundation

CAPITAL Foundation Funds at Work

2003 - 2004

CAPITAL Foundation Scholarship

Partner with over 60 CAPITAL member organizations to award $105,000 in scholarships, to 100 recipients

2004 - 2005

The CAPITAL Tutoring Project

Support college student tutoring project for local high school students - with the goal of increasing passing rates for standardized English and math test scores

Community Profile Project

Create API community profiles that will serve as a resource for the API community, using the 2000 U.S. Census for Sacramento County and the City of Sacramento

Friends of the California State Fair Scholarship

Sponsor and select scholarships for one 4-year college and two junior college or trade school API students

2005 - 2006

Filipino Youth CSI Day

Facilitate a discussion between police, sheriff, probation, city and metro fire departments, corrections, prosecutor and defense attorneys, and Filipino youth on the law, consequences, and informed choices

Friends of the California State Fair Scholarship

Prism Project

Bring visibility to underappreciated community and education issues, including:

- Inter-community relations, community networking and community training
- Domestic violence, mental health and holistic wellness

2006 - 2007

CAPITAL Foundation Scholarship

The CAPITAL Tutoring Project

Prism Project

About CAPITAL Foundation

The CAPITAL Foundation, a 501(c)(3) organization established in 2003, furthers civic awareness, development of community leadership and empowerment of the Sacramento Asian Pacific Islander communities and funds programs that promote participation and advocacy in the fields of public safety, education, health and human services and governmental and political processes.

CAPITAL Foundation
901 H St., Suite 201, Sacramento, CA 95814

capitalfoundation.org
info@capitalfoundation.org